

I fear that requests for ALL the changes of the Broadcast Ownership Rules constitute a power-grab by giant media that will further crowd out small local media and further limit diversity in the industry. All the major media have nearly identical news and entertainment as is. The public would be ill served by having more of the same. I urge you to veto these proposed changes.